

Arise Ports and Logistics joins the Port Management Association of West and Central Africa (PMAWCA) as an associate member.

Arise Ports & Logistics is thrilled to announce its official membership to the Port Management Association of West and Central Africa (PMAWCA) as an associate member. With this new addition, Arise P&L becomes the 9th member of a prestigious organization dedicated to enhancing the efficiency of ports and advancing the socio-economic growth of member countries while maintaining secure and eco-friendly port operations.

Arise P&L is a welcome addition to the association's top-tier platform. PMAWCA fosters enriching grounds for partnerships, networking, and sharing experiences and expertise with and between leaders in the maritime sectors. As a member of the PMAWCA, Arise P&L will participate in opportunities for interactions that contribute significantly to the infrastructural development of African countries and lay the foundations for constructive discussions and a fast array of initiatives. This association allows members to develop problem-solving endeavors that aim to eradicate the challenges in sustainability, transportation, and the marine economy.

Arise P&L is keen on leveraging partnerships with trusted allies whose ambitions align with their own – allies that intend to create value and impact on and for the continent.

Mr. Ebrima Sawaneh, Chief Operating Officer of Arise P&L, expressed his excitement about the new membership, "We are honored to be a part of PMAWCA and are grateful for the warm welcome from its members. This membership is a testament to our commitment to development, sustainability, and eco-friendly practices. We look forward to working closely with industry pioneers and sharing best practices in port management and operations to collectively enhance the efficiency of African ports while protecting the environment".

"We are delighted to welcome Arise P&L to PMAWCA. This is a great opportunity for us to collaborate and share our knowledge and experience in the field of port management. We look forward to working together to ensure the continued success of the African port industry." - Mr. Godwin Alini Yandjangoye, President of PMAWCA and Managing Director of OPRAG (Gabon Port authority).

About Arise Ports & Logistics:

About the PMAWCA :

Established in October 1972 under the auspices of the Economic Commission for Africa, the Port Management Association of West and Central Africa (PMAWCA) counts over 40 members and has been operating for the last 50 years. It aims to carry out a mission of improving and developing port activities in Africa and promoting cooperation and socio-economic growth of the sub-region by relying on eco-friendly port operations. The association organizes annual conferences which revolve around fostering a culture of collaboration, resilience, and environmental care in West and Central African ports.
